

TRADERS RETURN FROM EXCURSION

Chamber of Commerce
Pleased With Outing
Down the Bay.

COOLING BREEZES FOUND REFRESHING

Schedule Included Visits to Old Point Comfort, Norfolk, and Virginia Beach.

With sunburned faces and exuberant spirits, the members of the Washington Chamber of Commerce and their friends returned today from the second annual outing of that body.

Four hundred miles on the water, with breezes all the way! That was what the excursionists went for, and that is what they found in most liberal quantities. Sea food dinners, surf bathing, sightseeing, resting, and a complete change of surroundings from those of city life were the other objects of desire, and all were attained.

Although originally it had been planned that 200 people at least make the trip, the outing suffered not a whit in pleasurable quality because of the small number of those who went. As a matter of fact, those who did go found the occasion all the more enjoyable from the very fact of the lack of crowding.

Left Saturday Night.

The party left Washington Saturday night, arriving at Old Point Comfort Sunday morning. Breakfast was had at the Chamberlin Hotel, at that place, and thence the route lay to Norfolk, and from there by electric cars to Cape Henry. The return trip to Washington was begun Sunday evening, the excusionists coming direct to this city from Norfolk, arriving here this morning about 8 o'clock.

A notable feature of the outing was the clocklike regularity and smoothness with which connections for the different points were made. The route of the trip had been planned by D. J. Callahan, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, and was followed under his personal escort. There was not the slightest accident to mar the pleasure of the trip.

No sooner had the steamer left her dock than the welcome breezes were encountered, and bright, clear dawn met the approach of the steamer to Hampton Roads. Most of the party were on deck, enjoying the crisp, clear air and splendid view, as across the mouth of Chesapeake bay the steamer made her way to Old Point Comfort, Fort Monroe and one or two war vessels, with here and there a revenue cutter, were eagerly scanned through field glasses as the boat steamed past.

Take Early Plunge.

At the Hotel Chamberlin a number of the men, headed by Secretary Thomas Grant, made for the swimming pool, where they disported themselves under the gaze of the rest of the party, gathered on whatever is Latin for the gallery.

A steamer called the Ocean View took the party to Willoughby Spit, across from Old Point, a little after 3 o'clock.
Two special cars were there, ready to take the excursionists to Norfolk, where a big special express car was boarded for Cape Henry.

At Cape Henry the party lost no time in donning bathing suits and entering the surf. The hard sand of the beach and the warmth of the water proved too fascinating for anyone to resist.

Fine Sea Food Dinner.

A sea food dinner that was one of the most appreciated features of the excursion was served to the party in the Cape Henry pavilion early in the afternoon. At its conclusion Mr. Callahan was called upon for a speech.
He responded with "Not on your life!"

The dinner was served in a large, open pavilion, overlooking the sea. The Chamber of Commerce people had the place to themselves at first, but later it began to fill with others. The first few women who appeared were received with applause and cheers from the men. Some of these feminine intruders fled in confusion, notwithstanding the fact that there also were women in the visiting party. The others faced the order and soon were permitted to remain undisturbed.

The trip to Norfolk was uneventful, but the voyage up Chesapeake bay and the Potomac river was even more enjoyable than that down those two bodies of water.

Gustave Lansburgh grew reminiscent over his former fishing days. He told of catching a twelve-foot fish with a hook and line, and solemnly avowed that he was not telling a "fish story."

Members of Party.

In the party were three women and one boy, the last being Earl Leese, son of M. A. Leese. The list of those who made the trip follows: Mr. and Mrs.
W. F. Gude, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tomlin-son, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grant, D.

Mr. Griffin was seventy-two years old, which he was a graduate. After attaining his majority he received an appointment in the drafting division of the Patent Office, which position he held

$2,000,000 SOUVENIR LEFT BY SHRINERS

St. Paul Had Fine Time Entertaining High Rank Masons—Visitors Numbered 40,000.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 20.—The Shriner have spent more than $2,000,000 during their week in St. Paul. There have been more than 40,000 visitors on the average for the week. St. Paul never entertained in more hearty and generous style, and no visitors St. Paul has ever had have been more genial, more thoroughly imbued with the spirit of good fellowship or more thoroughly acceptable as guests of the city. St. Paul feels that the flower of the rank and file of America's citizenship has been here, and sees the red fez depart with genuine regret.

The city has never before entertained such a tremendous crowd. It has never seen a crowd more free from disorderliness and objectionable characteristics.
There has been nothing for the police court to do, and the police force has loafed the entire week while "the finest" chimed with the visiting nobles.
The city has been absolutely free from crime and dangerous and disreputable characters have been handled without gloves the instant they showed their faces.

CALLS BROTHERS TO SEE SUICIDE

BELLEVILLE, Ohio, July 20.—When two brothers of John Smith, of Belleville, were called to Almont, N. D., by a telegram saying he had been fatally hurt, they found him at the station to meet them.

Before they could speak to him he committed suicide by shooting himself in the head.

PRICE ON HEAD OF PROSECUTOR

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 20.—Chinese highlanders have set a price on the head of District Attorney Eugene S.
Wachorst, following his success in obtaining a conviction for murder against Gin Sule, who killed another Oriental.
This is the first time that highlanders have set a price on a white man's head, and Wachorst, realizing that the yes-sow men mean business, is being especially guarded.

PANIC IN FLAMES; ESCAPE CUT OFF

Firemen Make Thrilling Rescues From Tenement to Which Incendiary Applied Torch.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Two persons were overcome and the twenty-four families occupying the big double-deck tenement at 228-230 South Third street, Williamsburg, were thrown into a panic today when fire, bearing all the evidence of the work of an incendiary, broke out in the lower hallway and quickly filled the halls with smoke, cutting off escape from the upper stories.

When the firemen arrived they found the tenants panic-stricken, huddled together on the fire-escape landing and begging piteously to be taken down.
Several extension ladders were run up the front walls and many of the tenants, men, women, and children, were carried to safety.

Benjamin Selig and wife, who occupied the first floor front, and who were attempting to make their escape by the rear, were cut off by the smoke and found unconscious a short time later by firemen. Samuel Katz, living on the third floor, making his way to the street through the halls, was trapped and reaching the fire-escape rendered partly unconscious from the smoke.

Mrs. Sarah Hergenstein, who, with her four children, lived on the top floor, told the firemen she had left her children behind, and several firemen forced their way through the smoke and succeeded in reaching the Hergenstein apartments. The children were found huddled together in the front bed room and carried down. An ambulance surgeon attended to all the injured.

WAITING FOR JOB; GETS FINE OF $5

William Johnson and John Ford were each prisoners in the Police Court today charged with vagrancy. Judge Aukum imposed a fine of $5 on Johnson but Ford was lucky and was dismissed.
The two negroes used a lamper pole on the water front as a camping out-place and were caught. Johnson told the court that he was waiting there for a job and Ford said he was resting himself, having just gotten out of a hospital.

Ford produced a card from the hospital, and Judge Aukum decided to dismiss Ford, but held Johnson.

TWO MURDERERS DIE BY SING SING CHAIR

Rogers Killed Three Persons to Get $16—Italian Terror Slew Contractor.

OSSINING, N. Y., July 20.—Charles H.
Rogers, of Middletown, N. Y., the slayer of William C. and Fred R. Olney and Alice Ingerick, the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. George Ingerick, housekeeper for the Olneys, was electrocuted at Sing Sing prison this morning. Twenty minutes later Angelo Laudiero, an Italian, known as "Terror of Maunder Bend," died in the same chair, paying the death penalty for the murder of Don Michele d'Ambro, a contractor whom he killed last September.
The crime for which Rogers was sent to the electric chair is one of the most brutal in the criminal history of State.
The prisoner killed three persons and attempted to slay the fourth, Mrs. In-gerick, the mother of the girl victim, all to secure what little money his victims had in their possession. The sum he obtained was $16.

SOCIETY FAVORS DAINTY WAFERS

Some people like a certain dessert sometimes; other people like it all the time, but you cannot get all the people to like it all the time—unless it be Nabisco Sugar Wafers, for which you never grow taste-tired.

This confection is ideal for every sort of social function, whether as a dessert or to be nibbled with the punch or the beer. Nabisco Sugar Wafers take the place of candies, blending deliciously with ices and coffee and most happily completing either a sumptuous dinner or an afternoon tea.

SHE THANKS COURT FOR HER SENTENCE

Gertrude Brown this morning thanked the court for imposing a sentence of $5 or fifteen days in the workhouse, because she made the air blue in the neighborhood of Seventh and K streets Saturday night.

Judge Aukum heard her plea of guilty, and with an admonition not to do it again, imposed a light sentence.

Southern Illinois Relieved From Financial Depression—150,- 000 Back to Work.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 20.—Within the next thirty days, practically all of the large factories and foundries in southern Illinois, which were closed by the financial depression, will be reopened, and 150,000 men will be put back to work, according to data gathered by the East St. Louis Commercial Club.

By the end of next month it is expected that conditions on the other side of the river will be back where they were before the panic.
Madison, Granite City, and Venice, in which are located some of the large-est factories in Illinois, have already felt the return of normal conditions.
Clouds of smoke and full dinner pails are getting more in evidence daily, and hundreds of men have returned to work.

PRINTERS' SHOP DAMAGED BY FIRE

Fire of unknown origin about 2 o'clock the first floor, which is used as a job printing plant by George A. Conley and W. H. Bretter.

There are living apartments on the

THANKS OF CHINA FOR UNITED STATES

Governor of Mukden Will Express Gratification at Remitting of Boxer Indemnity.

PEKIN, July 20.—Tank-Shao-Yi, governor of Mukden province and former president of the board of foreign affairs, will visit Washington as high commissioner to thank the United States Government for remitting a portion of what is known as the "Boxer inden-nity."

The decision to send a representative educated in America instead of a prince, as was originally intended, is due to the recognition by the conservatives as well as the progressives of the Chinese government, of the necessity for closer relations with America.

EIGHT PRISONERS EACH FINED $5

Eight cases of unlawful congregation added $40 to the coffers of the Police Court this morning when Judge Aukum imposed sentences on the prisoners.
Ambrose Shenock, John Rose, John Stewart, George Green, Edward Hopkins, Samuel Burger, Rachael Lee, and Annie Johnson were the defendants and after various excuses which tended to impress the court that the prisoners were law abiding citizens, the court ended the cases by fining each defendant.
